We insert this week, apropos of some quaint correspondence which has appeared of the late in our columns, an extract from the new publication, "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," on the subject of infanticide, which we particularly recommend to the notice of our contributors containing some reliable facts in connection with the vexed question. * * * Such a work as the "Notes" is ne-ly supported as it deserves by the numerous rising and energetic men, who are now thanks principally to the philosophical hours of Mr Secretary Wade, making rapid advance in the acquirement of the language to say nothing of the devoted missionaries who have already grown grey in their ser-

Our knowledge of these countries has hitherto been so scattered, so ill-arranged, entombed as it were, in a series of works, in different languages, and spreading in point of time, over the last two centuries, that some means of separating what is really new, from what has possibly been over and over again said and said again, seemed to be a desideratum.

These antiquaries and scientific men ought especially to congratulate themselves on the appearance of "Notes and Queries," as it will form their medium of communication, and bring into notice what otherwise might have lain unknown and buried in themselves.
